

1,905 people experiencing homelessness were housed in Nashville from November 2021 through October 2022.

Source: De-duplicated Nashville–Davidson County HMIS data for clients who moved from homelessness to housing, including:

- Exits to permanent housing destinations from Emergency Shelters*, Transitional Housing, Street Outreach, and Support Services programs;
- Rapid Rehousing and Permanent Housing housing move-ins dates; and
- Other exits to permanent housing documented in Coordinated Entry (CE) and Domestic Violence Coordinated Entry (DV CE)****.

*This data does not include information from the Nashville Rescue Mission.

**DV CE data only includes the heads of household's information, and may under-represent the number of people fleeing domestic violence who were housed.
